National University Hospital

PROFESSIONAL STAFF IN THE DEPARTMENT OF LABORATORY

The National University Hospital Department of Laboratory Medicine is a leading provider of services to NUH, in Singapore and in the region. We offer a full range of routine and specialised tests that can be reviewed in our service catalogue.

Our Department staff are skilled in their field of work and able to advise on many aspects of laboratory testing. In addition to our technologists and medical laboratory scientists we offer the consultancy services of our Clinicians and specialist Scientists in all specialties which include correct test selection, interpretation and potential problems with possible interferences.
